

HSBC Fraser River Sturgeon Education Program

Stakeholder Symposium Assessment Rubric

Stakeholder group: _____

Names of group members: _____

Criteria	Excellent	Well developed	Competent	Underdeveloped
Provides clear, rational judgments and arguments to support positions held	Position is always based on information available and is supportive of balanced approach to management	Position is usually based on information available and is usually supportive of a balanced approach to management	Some positions are based on information available and is sometimes supportive of a balanced approach to management	Position is rarely based on information available and rarely or never able to achieve a balanced approach to management
Demonstrates sound background knowledge based on research skills	Outstanding reference to factual data; demonstrates outstanding research detail	Strong reference to factual data; demonstrating sound research detail	Satisfactory reference to factual data; some research detail evident	Little or no reference to factual data; Very little or no research evident
Demonstrates an open-minded attitude and respectful, cooperative approach to other stakeholders	Always gives respectful consideration to other stakeholders' position and is clearly willing to reconsider their position and augment their plans and goals	Usually gives respectful consideration to other stakeholders' position and is often willing to reconsider their position and augment their plans and goals	Sometimes gives respectful consideration to other stakeholders' position and is sometimes willing to reconsider their position and augment their plans and goals	Rarely gives respectful consideration to other stakeholders' position and is reluctant to reconsider their position and augment their plans and goals

Additional comments:
